Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Our Parish Mission begins under the guidance of Father Richard Gielow, C.M. I know that you join me in welcoming him to our parish. Father Gielow has given Parish Missions for many years and I know you will enjoy him as well as his witness and messages to us throughout this week. Note that Masses will be held in the church Monday through Thursday evenings at 7:00 p.m. with a reception to follow each evening in Xavier Hall to have the opportunity to meet and visit with Father Gielow and to enjoy fellowship with one another. I encourage everyone's participation in our Parish Mission and I pray that our parish, due in part to this Mission, will enjoy a deeper and more intimate union with Christ.

Prayer For A Stewardship Parish

My parish is composed of people like me.

I help make it what it is.

It will be friendly, if I am.

It will be holy, if I am.

Its pews will be filled, if I help fill them.

It will do great work, if I work.

It will be prayerful, if I pray.

It will make generous gifts to many causes,

if I am a generous giver.

It will bring others into worship,

if I invite and bring them in.

It will be a parish of loyalty and love, of fearlessness and faith, of compassion, charity and mercy,

if I, who make it what it is,

am filled with these same things.

Therefore, with the help of God, I now dedicate myself to the task of being all things that I want my parish to be.

Amen.

Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

What happens after we die? Most religions and philosophies provide some notion of this, but we are confounded by the mystery of it all. Today's readings give us a glimpse through the faith of martyrs and in the words of Jesus. In the Old Testament reading, the Maccabee brothers assert with total confidence that the God who gave them life would also raise them to eternal life. This was not universally accepted in ancient Israel. The Sadducees, who denied any resurrection of the dead, try to trap Jesus with a hypothetical riddle. Jesus, known for turning such things around, dismisses their unbelief, noting that even Moses knew that all are alive in God. Saint Paul tells the Thessalonians that we live in everlasting encouragement and hope, and Psalm 17 echoes this with words of faith that we will see God's face, waking in God's loving presence.
